SICK-CERELY YOURS:

WE GET LETTERS...

DEAR EDITOR:

You're so sick in the mind that you won't do a satire of Kodiak! Now that's a sickness doctors can't control!

Travis Stewart
Wakefield, R.I.

ED: Not even a script doctor—we've seen that show!

Not too long ago, me and my friend Diana were at the store. She bought a SICK magazine. She told me about it so I bought one too. Boy, was it neat!

Carol Kilitzing
Altamont, Ill.

ED: And remember, neatness counts!

The Howard Cosell pinup in the February SICK gave me a laugh. Congratulations on a fine job.

Bernie Westlake
Butte, Mont.

ED: In Howard's case, beauty is only mouth deep!

"Shticks & Stones" (August Sick) was the worst thing I ever read in a humor magazine! You guys are nothing but a bunch of amateurs!

Billy Reid, Jr.
Stowe, Vt.

ED: Shticks & Stones may break our bones, but names will never harm us!

Just when I thought I saw the last of your Rube Goldberg inventions, you came up with some more in your February issue. I really love those inventions. Keep 'em coming regularly!

Joseph Ruggiero
Spokane, Wash.

ED: There's Goldberg in them thar hills!

In the December issue you ran a feature entitled "When Japan Owns The U.S.A." I think there was more fact than fantasy here. Judging from all the "made in Japan" products that are flooding U.S. markets, it looks like the Japanese want to gobble up our country!

Steve Taylor, Jr.
Austin, Tex.

ED: Gobble up, no. A little nip, maybe!

Why don't you write a whole book of the Barklett's Unfamiliar Quotations I read in the October SICK? If you did I would surely buy it.

Roger McCreary
Evarts, Ky.

I enjoyed SICK's Dubious Achievement Awards for 1974 (Feb. issue). I'd like to see this feature again.

Marge Earnshaw
Bangor, Maine

ED: You will, if 1974 ever comes back!

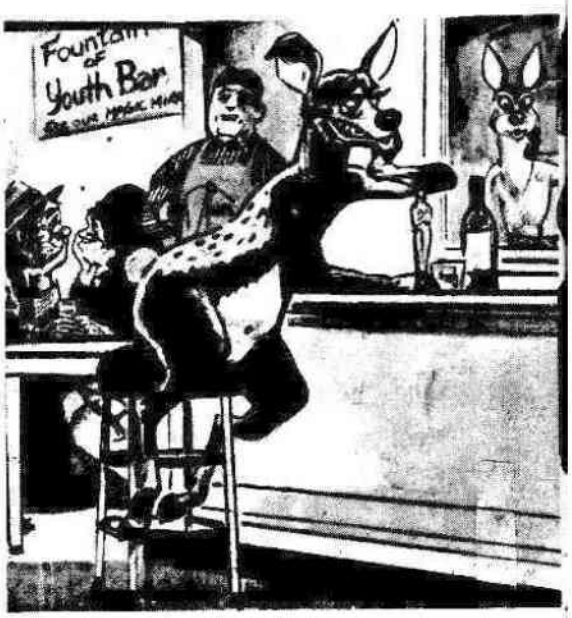
I read an article in your February issue called "A Tourist's Guide To Bolshavainia" written by Kim Bene. Is there really such a place as Bolshavainia?

Gerald Michaels, Jr.
Ann Arbor, Mich.

ED: There isn't even such a writer as Kim Bene!



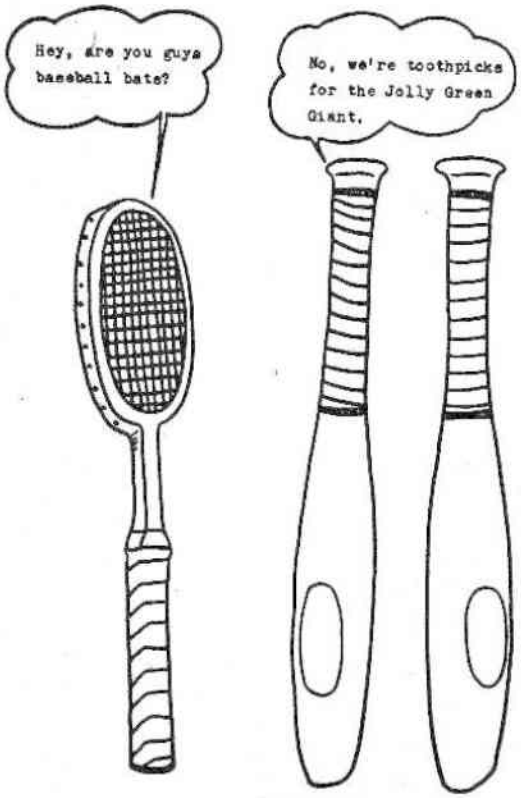
WHY IS THIS KANGAROO GETTING DRUNK?

TO FORGET OUR STORY ON PAGE 12

I thought that 16-page Monster Calendar you did in your current Annual was the best thing you've ever done. The drawings by Tony Tallarico were fabulous and the lines by Hirsch and Laikin were out of sight.

Ned Tobiason
Ames, Iowa

ED: Fright on!



FOR MORE ON THIS RACKET THAT WILL DRIVE YOU BATS SEE PAGE 39

Has Ralph Nader attempted to recall that pinup you did of him in the centerfold of your December 1974 issue?

Mary Warshovski
Tampa, Fla.

ED: No, because that would mean it had defective parts!

Your takeoff on "The Day Of The Dull-Fin" was better than the movie. You had a funnier plot.

Jim Stanton
Baltimore, Md.

ED: A likely (fish) story!

Everytime I try to do one of your SICK mazes I'm interrupted in the middle and I lose my place. I'm through doing them. I can't take it any more!

Vernon Jeffries
Waterboro, Ala.

Congratulations on another SICK scoop! Yours was the first and only one of the satire mags to do a takeoff on Mel Brooks' "Young Frankenstein" (Feb. issue). This is one of the funniest movies ever made and your parody was just hilarious. You guys have done it again!

Cole Wingdale
Roanoka, Va.

ED: Yes, and we'll keep doing it until we get it right!

That Howard Cosell pinup in the February issue was super! Is that how he really looks with all his clothes off?

Marty Lucas
Enid, Okla.

ED: Nobody really knows. Howard's mouth is so big it covers his entire body!

Those bonus gift certificates you ran in your February issue were the best cutouts I've ever seen in a long time. They were so real looking they even fooled me. They fooled my mother and my older brother too. Only they didn't fool the man at the store where I tried to cash them in.

Bert Gardella
Racine, Wisc.

ED: Cut out the kidding. Next time use your credit card.

(see page 35)

HUCK FINK'S THINKS

The big news recently was that President Ford went skiing. And why not? The rest of the country is going downhill too. Incidentally, know how they're addressing President Ford nowadays? Howdy, pardoner . . .

I would like to report however that the President is doing the job. Trouble is, he's doing it all wrong!

And those doctors who examined Richard Nixon recently made medical history: They made a house call.

Speaking of Nixon, the new word in the national vocabulary is "expletive"—which is a nine-letter word meaning a four-letter word . . .

People keep asking guards at the Empire State Building, "Where exactly did King Kong stand?" The guards keep answering, "Anywhere he wanted to!" . . .

Sports is starting to influence all television programming. Last night I saw an instant replay on Sermonette . . .

I leave you with one last thought. Ever have this disturbing thought about the economy: What if Rockefeller really needs the job?

WHAT THIS COUNTRY NEEDS IS A GOOD FIVE-CENT CIGARETTE!

THE TRIAL OF BILLY JERK

This movie has a cast of thousands—most of them buffalo! In fact, one of them is up for an Academy Award—so you can guess at the level of acting. The Navajo star, like the picture, is a little confused—he attempts to send smoke signals through a telephone! But he is completely undaunted. For when he is caught out on the desert with a pound of sand in his jockey shorts, we know this Indian has "True Grit!"

Show me a farmer who doesn't spray his crops and I'll show you a man with ants in his plants.

Dear Coach and Football Fans:

Please excuse Joe Willie for being absent from Sunday's game. He had trouble with his old joint. He was in a fight at Bachelor's Three. He will be back in a week or two.

Regards,
Mrs. Broadway Joe

P.S. Please mail his game checks home and have that TV model bring over his deodorant.

Dear A.M.C. and G.M.:

Please excuse Ralph for being absent from yesterday's safety inspection tour. His throat was defective and his tonsils were recalled.

Best,
Mrs. Nader

Dear Mary T. Moore and Company:

Please excuse me for being absent from the show this season. Our saccharine friendship finally gave me diabetes. I'm now sweet as sugar on my own show!

Best regards,

Ever since "The Poseidon Adventure" made such a hit at the box office, Hollywood has been turning out one disaster-type movie after another (and some are real disasters themselves!): "Juggernaut," "Airport 1975," "Earthquake," "The Towering Inferno" and others. DOUBLE-TALK SPOKEN HERE

IN-SICK-NIFICANT

JOHNS HOPKINS: A recent medical report reveals that the average man has 66 pounds of muscle as opposed to only 3.3 pounds of brain. (And shows it!)

MAYO CLINIC: Doctors have just come out and stated that you can't possibly keep your eyes open when you sneeze. (Bless you for that information!)

WASHINGTON, D.C.: In order to reach the goal of self-sufficiency in energy resources by the projected date of 1980, the President estimates that Americans will not only have to drill more than 190,000 oil and gas wells, but sink an additional 9,000 coal mine shafts. (Ah, c'mon, Gerry, hasn't America been shafted enough?)

CASPAR, WYOMING: A group of monks recently went on a strike in their monastery. (What were they demanding —worse conditions?)

PHILADELPHIA, PA.: The Fire Department here has ordered its men to cut their hair short. (Could it be they were fearful the men would start demanding singe benefits!)

MADISON, WISC.: A recent survey has shown that couples who sleep in waterbeds have a higher divorce rate than those who do not. (Stands to reason that in waterbeds they'd drift apart!)

DETROIT, MICH.: Edsel Ford II was recently married to Cynthia Coyne Neakow. (Let's hope that Ralph Nader doesn't recall the groom!)

NOOSE OF THE WEEK IN REVIEW:

Here's to author Charles Duff, who really got the hang of things with this latest book, Handbook on Hanging, which was highlighted as follows on page seven of the Weekly Report Section of Publishers' Weekly (September 16, 1974).

DUFF, Charles, 1894- 364.6'6
A handbook on hanging; being a short introduction to the fine art of execution, containing much useful information on neck-breaking, throttling, strangling, asphyxiation, decapitation and electrocution; data and wrinkles on hangmanship; with the late Mr. Hangman Berry's method and his pioneering list of drops; to which is added an account of the great Nuremberg hangings; a ready reckoner for hangmen; and many other items of interest including the anatomy of murder. Finally definitive ed. diligently compared and revised in accordance with the most recent developments in the art. [Yorkshire, Eng.] EP Publishing [Totowa, N.J.] Rowman & Littlefield, 1974. 191 p. 19 cm. Reprint of 1961 ed. published by Putnam, London. [HV8694.D8 1974] 74-173605 8.50
1. Hanging. 2. Capital punishment. I. Title.

On fairly reliable authority, SICK learned that Mr. Duff wrote the book at, what else, a breakneck pace. It seems he was in a rush to get to the ballpark to see a double beheader. Thanks, author Duff, for letting it all hang out!

NEWS OF THE MONTH

by PAUL LAIKIN

BOSTON, MASS.: The Irish Distillers of America have just put out a booklet on cooking with whiskey. (We'll eat to that!)

SCORPIOS, GREECE: Aristotle Onassis turned down Playgirl's offer to pose nude in the centerfold. (Guess he doesn't want anybody to beware of Greeks baring!)

DENVER, COLORADO: A recent survey indicated that more than 6,000,000 Americans are overweight. (Man, that's really a lump sum!)

AMES, IOWA: A farmer hereabouts claims he actually crossed a chicken with a pig. (What did he expect to get —bacon and eggs?)

TACOMA, WASH.: Two lavatories are being installed right in the middle of Mt. Everest. (Our guess is the climbers will now have to bring ropes and a dime!)

He wrote Porgie and Bass!

WHY DID THE FISH SUE THE OCEAN LINER?
It bumped into him on porpoise!

HOW DO YOU INTEGRATE A TANK FILLED WITH GOLDFISH?
You introduce some whitefish and some blackfish!

WHY DID THE FISH TRY TO DRAG MISS AMERICA INTO THE WATER THE DAY SHE WENT FISHING?
Because he fell for her hook, line and sinker!

WHY DO FISH DETEST GANGSTERS?
They always carry a rod!

WHO IS THE LITTLE FISHES' FAVORITE ALL-TIME ACTOR?
Marlin Brando!

WHAT LUXURY LINER DO THE FISH PREFER?
The Eel de France!

WHY DID THE FISH LAUD THE FISHERMAN?
He was fishing for a compliment!

WHO IS THE FISHES' FAVORITE COMIC STRIP CHARACTER?
Popeye! Because he has big mussels and eats all his spinners.

A SICK LOOK AT THE ECONOMY

The telephone company has announced that it needs a $2,000,000 increase to maintain service. Why don't they just persuade 25 more teenagers to get their own phones?

These days GOVT. is a four-letter word.

Lately, people have been dreaming of a White Christmas. Not snow—sugar!

The Republicans have printed 10,000,000 WIN buttons for 1976. The may have to come up with some PLACE and SHOW buttons too!

Depression must be here. A street corner peddler was seen selling apples and pocket calculators!

With prices so high today, the only thing we can do on a shoestring is trip!

You just know the country is in bad shape—people are going to the Welfare Office in smaller cars!

Sugar has become so scarce, the mob is cutting it with cheaper heroin!

Unemployment was never worse. Look how long it took Rockefeller to get a job!

Inflation is when you get a 15-cent allowance and an ice-cream cone costs 21¢!

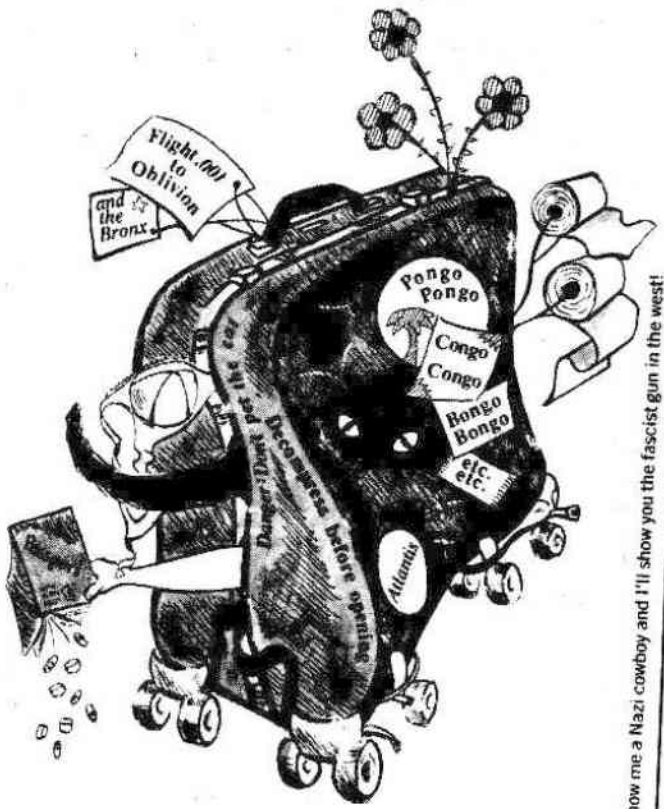
Money can't buy happiness—but then again, it can't buy food or clothing or anything else today!

Show me a sassy bug and I'll show you a cocky roach!

VACATIONS YOU HAVE TO MISS

Script by PHIL HIRSCH

Art by DIANE LEVIN



The mini-cost vacation:

SUBWAY RIDE THROUGH NEW YORK CITY

If you can peer through the graffiti-smeared windows, you will get scenic glimpses of soot-encrusted tunnels, graffiti-sprayed tile walls, and friendly native track workers—if they aren't on strike. Sleep on the platform or on the train. Spend money wildly—get mugged!

This vacation is sump-tin else!

DRAINAGE DUMPS OF SOUTHEAST ASIA

Don't forget to bring your bathing suit so you can enjoy those invigorating dips in the dump waters. Lifeguards are off-duty from January 1 through December 31. WARNING: Don't drink the water!

Don't miss

Show me a Nazi cowboy and I'll show you the fascist gun in the west!

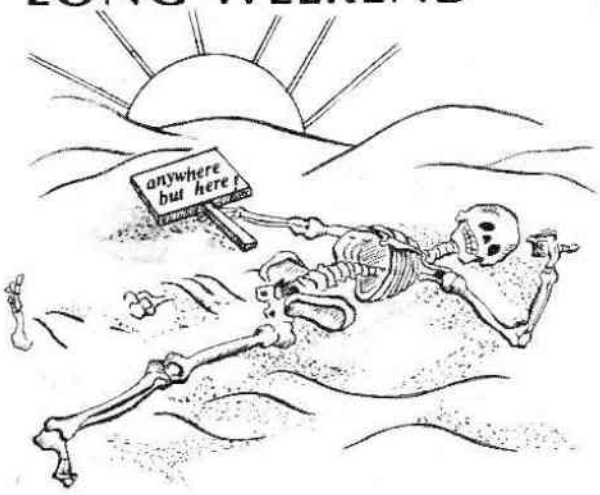
The collectors' ideal vacation:

VISIT THE ATHENS, GEORGIA GARBAGE DUMP

You've heard all about the South's heady magnolia blossom-filled air? Well, come on a really hot summer day and breathe in the exotic fragrances. Also, you can keep anything of value you find. Remember, today's thrown-out castaway furniture is tomorrow's priceless antique. Vacation price includes food—try the leftovers!

Forget about that castle in Spain . . .

BUILD YOUR OWN CASTLE IN THE SAND . . . THE SAHARA DESERT LONG WEEKEND



Excellent athletic facilities, including a golf course with the largest sand trap in the world! No extra charge for mirages. Free transfer to the Sheraton Tent by a magic carpet. Includes free rental of one-hump camel at Hertz Rent-A-Camel. Two-hump models add $2 per day.

Show me a man who likes organizations and I'll show you a Rotary-Rooter!

THREE WEEKS IN LICHTENSTEIN

You need three weeks—and more—to enjoy all the highlights of this great, great country. Thanks to this splendid 21-day, 20-night vacation, you will be able to cover every foot of fabulous Lichtenstein. For those who can't get away for three weeks, a two-week full tour of Lichtenstein is available with special transportation from Hertz Rent-a-Skate!

IN SEARCH OF ANCIENT ASTRO-NUTS AND OTHER STRANGE CREATURES VACATION

This is an out-of-this-world experience. Imagine spending a full month seeking an astronaut from the Planet of the Apes (bring along plenty of bananas—or else). Also, special side-trips are available to Mount Everest—get snowed in for a free weekend with the Abominable Snowman—and to Scotland's famous Loch Ness, where the sea monster resides (bring along plenty of Scotch).

Show me a nutty blackbird and I'll show you a raven maniac!

SKID ROW SPECIAL

Visit the seedy streets of America's major repositories of drinkers. For a fun night, watch the police round-up of the alkies. Warning: You can drink the water—be careful of the liquor served. Spend the night in the Fleabag Hilton—if you've got the scratch. (WARNING: All rooms are bugged!)

OVERNIGHTER AT THE OLD AGE HOME

You'll enjoy gambling with the bingo croupiers, and it's not an uncommon sight to see one of the natives go off his rocker. (For those who desire longer stays, it's a pleasure to spend a few months—or even years—watching wrinkles form. Special side-trip—search for real old fossils!

SPECIAL SWINGERS' OVERNIGHTER

Here is a chance to forget about dressing up—a loincloth is all you need—to really "bring out the beast in you." Step outside your treehouse, and while jungle tom-toms beat pulsatingly away in musical cadence, spot a jungle beauty in a neighboring treehouse—and swing, man, swing! What else could a vacationer ask for—vine, women and song!

ALCATRAZ, SAN QUENTIN, ETC. THE PRISON PILGRIMAGE

This is a real long vacation—minimum stay—a year and a day—gratuities included. Uniformed personnel watching you day and night, making sure you really get the most out of your stay. Three meals a day including Continental breakfast: bread and water. And if you really want to be alone, to get away from it all, spend some time in one of the special suites in the solitary confinement wing!

Show me a sausage factory that covers an entire city block and I'll show you a lot of baloney.

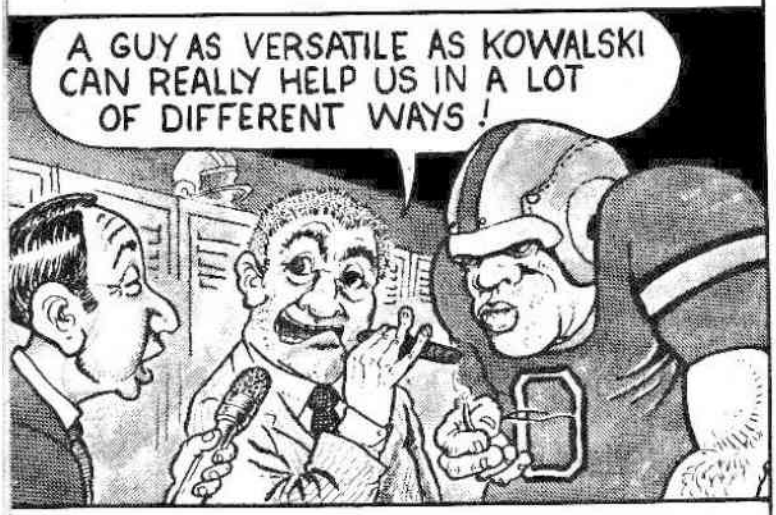
WHAT THEY'RE

FOOTBALL COACH

"Why not? They surprise me every game. I never saw a defensive line tackle a peanut vendor by mistake before!"



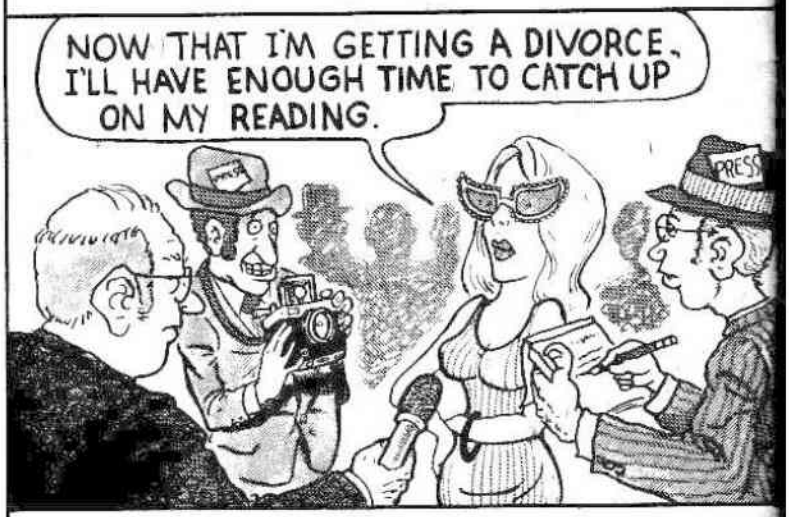
"Like driving the team bus, lighting coach's cigars, making sure there's soap in the shower room . . ."

"Too bad we're playing football and not running a beauty pageant!"

MOVIE ACTRESS

"Who am I kidding? I've seen better film on teeth!"

They call it a "movie premiere" but I've seen more excitement at the opening of umbrellas!"



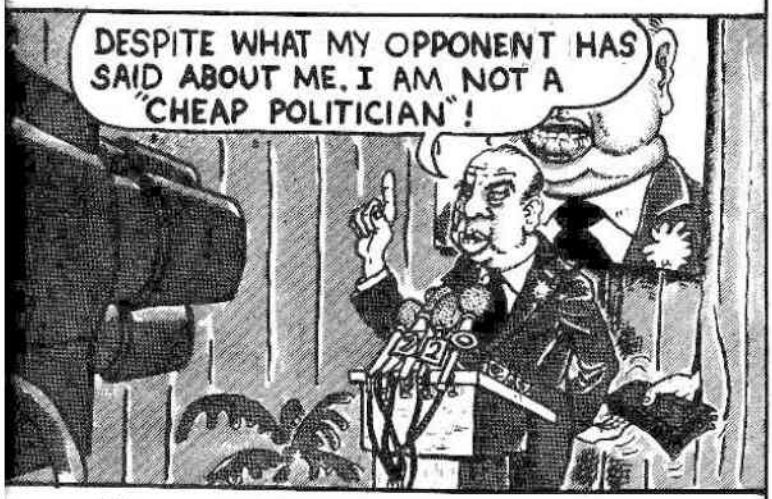
"And the first thing I want to read are some very large figures on alimony checks!"

REALLY THINKING...

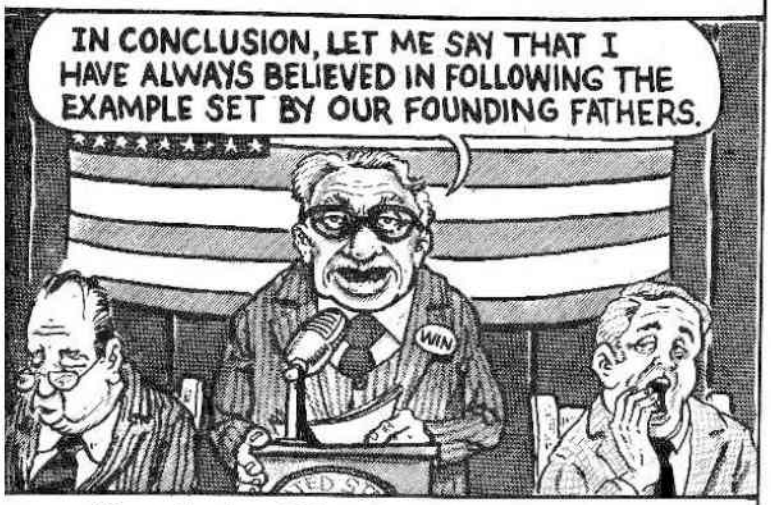
Show me a marksman who uses a pocket watch for target practice and I'll show you someone who likes to shoot the works!

POLITICAL CANDIDATE

"And if they ever look up my background, I'll be running for the plane to Brazil!"



"I've accepted some of the biggest bribes in the history of our city!"



"Benedict Arnold has always been my idol!"

BLIND DATE

"That way no one who knows me will see us together. I couldn't stand the embarrassment!"

"All the other guys I've gone out with were good-looking and intelligent!"

"... just as soon as I think of something really rotten to call you!"
